Voter Registration

To register to vote in Arizona, you must meet the following qualifications:

- Be a citizen of the United States of America
- Be a resident of Arizona and the county listed on your registration
- Be 18 years of age on or before the day of the next regular General Election

See Registration Requirements on the Arizona Secretary of State website for more details.

Currently, citizens may register to vote when obtaining a credential from the MVD. This happens from the Questionnaire tab in a Credential Issuance service in MAX. See Voter Registration Chart for more information.
