Address Confidentiality Program (ACP)

Eligible customers may apply to have certain information redacted (hidden) from their MVD records to ensure it is not publicly available. Redacting a customer's personal information is done by adding a characteristic to their customer record.

If a customer's information is hidden, do not make any attempt to view their confidential data unless it is necessary to conduct Division business on their behalf.

CSRs have the ability to add or remove this Characteristic on the customer's record. CSR must write down the ACP start date and enter that same date into MAX when they are adding the ACP Characteristic back on the record.

If any issues, please contact Madelene Carbajal. DO NOT contact the Secretary of State Address Confidentiality Program.

The ACP will allow a person who has been subjected to domestic violence, sexual offense, or stalking to keep their residence address confidential and not accessible to the general public.

The CSR will enter the ACP customer's actual resident address as the residential address in MAX and the ACP substitute address with registered apartment number as the mailing address.

ACP customers will ONLY need to provide proof of mailing address not residential for credential issuance.

At no time will any state or local government entity intentionally or knowingly release the ACP's participant's confidential address information.

The information is protected under the Arizona Law and the entity could be found guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor.
