Customer Record and Customer Account Overview

A MAX Customer Record or official MVD Customer Record is required for any person or organization seeking services with us. The Customer Record is made up of important information about the customer, such as identification types, contact information, characteristics, etc. To help organize customers, two types of customer records exist in MAX:

- Individual Customer Record - An Individual Customer is any person who is doing business with the MVD, such as obtaining a driver's license or registering a vehicle.
- Organization Customer Record - An Organization Customer is a business or organized group with a particular purpose, such as a Dealer, Trust, Financial Institution, etc.
