CDL Classes

Class A	Any combination of vehicles with a GCWR of 26,001 or more pounds provided the GVWR of the vehicle(s) being towed is in excess of 10,000 pounds.
Class B	Any single vehicle with a GVWR of 26,001 or more pounds or any such vehicle towing a vehicle not in excess of 10,000 pounds GVWR.
Class C	Any single vehicle or combination of vehicles, that does not meet the definition of Group A or B vehicles but that is either designed to transport 16 or more passengers including the driver; or is used to transport hazardous material as defined in 383.5.

Misc Information

- Misc Information New York - Endorsement W (Tow Truck), no such endorsement for Arizona
- Customer with AZ CLP may take skills test out of state as long as that state is able to enter pass/fail into CSTIMS
 - Out-of-state license holder with an out-of-state CLP (same state license and permit) can test in Arizona, provided they return to the state they are licensed in to be issued their CDL
- To upgrade from a class B to a class A the customer must take the Combination knowledge test - Air Brakes if needed
- The General Knowledge test is the same for all classes
- Permit expired - customer must retake knowledge tests
- When a CDL is withdrawn (suspended, revoked, canceled, or disqualified) or otherwise expired one year or more, all knowledge and skills test must be re-administered
 - If medical examination documentation has expired, the CDL applicant/holder must have a FMCSA-qualified medical professional complete the required documentation:
 - For the INTERstate CLP or CDL applicant/holder, they must have a FMCSA-qualified medical professional electronically submit current medical examination documentation and pay any reinstatement fees
 - For the INTRAstute CLP or CDL applicant/holder, the paper medical examination documentation may be submitted to a MVD field or ATP office or through email (medicalreview@azdot.gov (for customer)) and pay any reinstatement fees
- Hazmat knowledge test needs to be re-taken every 8 years (upon renewal of CDL) or when upgrading to TID and over 12 months since last taken
- When an initial or renewal issuance of a CDL, or new endorsement has been added to a CDL, a CDL Maintenance Card needs to be provided to the customer
