Non Commercial Skills Test

The Non Commercial skills test allows the Division to determine if a person is able to safely operate a motor vehicle.

The Division offers American Sign Language (ASL) Interpreter for the noncommercial tests, view the American Sign Language \(ASL\) Interpreter Request topic in Office Standard Work for the process to request an interpreter.

If conducting a re-exam, view the Medical Reasons topic > Re-Exams sections for more information on required documentation and how to conduct the re-exam process.

Fees paid by the customer are valid until the original credential has been issued, after testing has been completed.

Test results that are from the Division are valid for life and do not expire.
