Driver (MVR)

A Driver MVR is the printout of a driving record. The Division offers two basic types of records, restricted (displays limited information) and non-restricted. Information printed on the MVR will depend upon the type of MVR requested.

A MVR may display the following:

- Personal information (name, DOB, residential/ mailing address, and physicals)
- Current license information (class license, issue date, and expiration date)
- Applicable restrictions and endorsements
- Prior License history information
- Outstanding Compliance Requirements
- In-state and out-of-state violations
- Driving history points (related to the time frame requested)
 - Withdrawals
 - Compliance
 - Violations and or Incidents

View Driver Record > Point Totals section for more information on how points are assessed.

Anyone knowingly obtaining, disclosing, or using personal information from a MVR for a use not permitted by law and anyone who misrepresents their identity or makes a false statement with the intent to obtain such information in a manner not authorized by law, is subject to a civil and or criminal penalties.

Customer Service Representatives (CSRs) may process MVR requests for the following record types only:

- Driver
- Vehicle
- Mobile Home
- Lienholder
- Support documents, except microfilm (not issued by Third Party office)

Driver MVRs may be processed on AZ MVD Now.
