Driver Reinstatement

Driver Reinstatement is not a separate service in MAX. If a customer has active withdrawals (stops, cancellations, revocations, etc,) they will need to meet all compliance requirements before their driving privilege can be restored.

- If a customer's driving credential was not canceled or revoked due to a withdrawal, as soon as they satisfy their compliance requirements their non-expired existing credential is still good and services can continue
- If a customer's credential expired while the withdrawal was in place, and they have since satisfied all their compliance requirements, provide a Credential Issuance service
- If a customer's credential was canceled or revoked due to a withdrawal, and their Arizona Privilege Status is ELG has been reinstated, provide a Credential Issuance service

Reinstatement Fees

A customer's driving privileges will remain canceled, disqualified, suspended and or revoked until application for reinstatement is made. Personal Checks are not accepted for the payment of any reinstatement fee.

The following fees are required at the time of reinstatement:

- Abandoned Vehicle Fees \(ABV\)
- Non-Sufficient Funds \(NSF\)
- Travel Driver License, when applicable
- For reinstatement of driving privileges after:
 - A suspension or disqualification
 - A suspension or disqualification extension
 - A revocation
 - A revocation extension
 - An administration suspension (Admin Per Se)

Type of Reinstatement	Fee
Suspension or disqualification	$10
Suspension or disqualification extension	$10
Revocation	$20
Revocation extension	$20
Administration (Admin Per Se) suspension	$50

The total reinstatement amount is dependent upon the type and combination of withdrawal actions recorded in the Customer Record. Certain reinstatement fees may be combined.

If at the time of reinstatement, Andrew's record displays two Administration (Admin Per Se) Suspensions, two Revocations, one Driver Improvement Suspension and one Disqualification. Andrew's reinstatement fees would total $80.

- One $50. fee for both Administration (Admin Per Se) suspension reinstatement
- One $20. fee for both Revocations
- One $10. fee for both the Disqualification and Driver Improvement Suspension

Admin Per Se

When as a result of an administrative hearing the Admin Per Se is:

- Expunged, reinstatement fees are required
- Rescinded, no reinstatement fees are required

Suspension

The suspension for:

- Admin Per Se
- Implied Consent
- Child Support Arrearage
- Failure to Appear/ Failure to Pay a Civil Penalty
- Minors and Juveniles
- Traffic Violations

- Underage Drinking

Will stay in effect until the person submits:

- Implied Consent reinstatement fee
- Any other applicable fees

For suspension on or after August 9, 2017, a customer will no longer remain suspended until reinstatement fees are paid but will be required to pay the fees when renewing, obtaining a replacement or updated credential.

Reinstatement fees may be required prior to the issuance of a SIIRDL. Whenever the customer record contains an open withdrawal action and all requirements applicable to the open withdrawal action are met, the processor shall collect all fees due. When multiple withdrawal actions are present on the Customer Record, additional fees may apply.

Revocation

The initial step in the revocation reinstatement process is the submitall of a properly completed Revocation Application.
