Special Ignition Interlock Restricted Driver License (SIIRDL) Issuance

A Special Ignition Interlock Restricted Driver License (SIIRDL) is license that is subject to all CIID requirements, including accuracy checks. The SIIRDL permits individuals with an Arizona class D or G driving privilege to operate a motor vehicle while they are under suspension, restriction, or revocation for any of the following DUI violations:

- A.R.S. § 28-1321: A first refusal of an Implied Consent
- A.R.S. § 28-1383A3A or 28-1383A3B: A first violation of a specified Aggravated DUI
- A.R.S. § 4-244.34, 28-1381, 1382: A violation of operating a motor vehicle while under 18 years of age with any spirituous liquor in the person's body, if under a court-ordered restriction
- A.R.S. § 28-1381 and 1382: A second violation of a DUI or Extreme DUI (can be a combination of the two); second violation occurs after January 1, 2012
- A.R.S. § 28-1385: Administrative license suspension (Admin Per Se) for a DUI ; violations occurs on or after January 1, 2023

The SIIRDL will count as time-served towards the amount of time a customer is required to have a CIID installed as long as the customer does not have a 'Failed to Calibrate' incident or remove the CIID before the end of the suspension. If the customer is eligible for a CIID Deferment, the SIIRDL will not count toward time for the deferment.

A Special Ignition Interlock Driver License \(SIIRDL\) Agreement, form #96-0782 is required for violations of 28-1321 and 28-1385 that occurs on or after January 1, 2023.

If the Division suspends, revokes, cancels, or rescinds the initial SIIRDL or SIIRDL privilege for any reason , except when the actions are pursuant to A.R.S. 28-1463, the Division may not issue a new or reinstated SIIRDL to the person.

Admin Per Se or Implied Consents for drugs do not qualify for a SIIRDL.

Admin Per Se or Implied Consents for alcohol and drugs where the alcohol is less than .08 do not qualify for a SIIRDL.

All individuals applying for a SIIRDL must meet the following requirements:

- Submit proof of financial responsibility (SR22)
 - A SR22 is not required for a SIIRDL when it is related to an Admin Per Se
 - View the SR22 topic > Verifying How Long a SR22 Is Required: DUI section to determine how long they need to hold the SR22
- Submit proof of installation of CIID
- May need to provide proof of completion for any required Alcohol/Drug Screening or treatment/evidence-based psychotherapy.
- Reinstatement fees vary with a SIIRDL, but all fees including age appropriate reapplication fees must be paid

If a person is applying for a first time DL or IP and is revoked or suspended, they must wait until the revocation or suspension time is over prior to applying for the DL or IP.

The SIIRDL is issued to eligible individuals and is valid for the duration of the suspension, restriction, or revocation period.

Wayne has a one year Implied Consent suspension from 01/05/2023 to 01/05/2024 for refusing BAC testing.

During this period Wayne is eligible for a SIIRDL on 01/05/2023 that would allow him to drive while on suspension.

Wayne has elected to have the SIIRDL issued on 06/05/2023.

Electing to have the SIIRDL issued on 06/05/2023 to 01/05/2024, permits Wayne to drive for seven months when he would otherwise be suspended from doing so.

The seven months will go towards Wayne's IL requirement.

John has a one year Revocation for a 2nd or more DUI from 01/05/2023 to 01/05/2024.

During this period, John is eligible for a SIIRDRL on 02/19/2023, that would allow him limited driving while on suspension.

John has elected to have the SIIRDRL issued on 06/10/2023.

Electing to have the SIIRDRL issued from 06/10/2023 to 01/05/2024, permits John to driver for seven months when he would otherwise be suspended from doing so.

However, the SIIRDRL has not fulfilled John's one year IL requirement. John will need to keep the CIID installed in his vehicle for the remaining time to complete his IL requirement.

If the SIIRDRL is issued prior to January 1, 2023 having the CIID on the vehicle while the individual is under a SIIRDRL does not fulfill any part of the IL requirement.

However, if the individual issued the SIIRDRL fails to comply with the CIID requirements, the CIID requirements may be extended for an additional year from the end date of the SIIRDRL.

At the end of the SIIRDRL restricted time frame, the customer must then reinstate in order to restore his or her full driving privileges. If the customer does not have an interlock requirement on record they may remove the device after the period is up for the SIIRDRL and pay to reinstate their license.
