Discretionary License Suspension

The Division may suspend the license of a person upon receiving sufficient evidence that the person:

- Convicted or adjudged to have violated traffic regulations with such frequency that it indicates disrespect for traffic laws and disregard for the safety of others on the highway
- Accumulation between eight to 12 points on the driving record within a 12-month period and has successfully completed the Traffic Survival School (TSS) course within 24 months of the most recent violation
- Is medically, psychologically or physically incapable of operating a motor vehicle and, based on law enforcement, medical or other Division information, the continued operation of a motor vehicle by the person would endanger the public health, safety and welfare.
- Committed or permitted an act of involving an unlawful or fraudulent use of the license
- Committed an offense in another jurisdiction that if committed in this state is grounds for suspension
- Convicted of any of the following violations
 - A.R.S 28-1381 Driving or actual physical control while under the influence
 - A.R.S. 28-1382 Driving or actual physical control while under the extreme influence
 - A.R.S 28-1464 Ignition interlock devices
