Mobile Home Title Transfers

Mobile Home Unit Backlog - The Mobile Home Unit will be working their backlog of titles that are missing documentation post mobile homes in MAX. For these records the Mobile Home Unit may contact the CSR.

Documentation Needed

For MCO(s) or out-of-state title(s):

A customer must provide the following for each section of the mobile home:

- Manufacturer's Certificate of Origin(s) (MCO)
- Manufacturer's Statement of Origin(s) (MSO)
- Out-of-state title(s)
- A properly completed, including the specific information required for MHs, T&R Application \(Single\), form #96-0236 or a signed Title Summary

The customer must also provide:

- Lien information for filing, or a lien release, if applicable
- A Certificate of Compliance (before 1985) or Certificate of Waiver (after 1985) issued by the Arizona Office of Manufactured Housing, if applicable

► Out-of-State Mobile Homes

For Arizona Title Transfer:

The customer must submit the following documentation (and any supporting documentation) for each section of the mobile home:

- The Arizona mobile home title(s), Title Transfer \(Bill of Sale\), form #38-1306, if applicable
 - When a Title Transfer form is submitted, ownership on the form must be verified that it is the same as ownership listed in Vehicle Snapshot - Accommodative Data
- Tax Clearance Receipt, if applicable*. View the policy 8.13.2 Mobile Homes > Requirements for Title Issuance section (G)(1) and (H) for more information
- A properly completed, including the specific information required for MHs, T&R Application \(Single\), form #96-0236 or a signed Title Summary
- Level I Inspection, if applicable
- Information for filing a lien, or a lien release, if applicable

- Mobile Home lienholders are not required to be ELT

A lien release is required to release a lien on a mobile homes record no matter the age of the lien. For additional information see the Lien Release topic.

If a lien did not convert over to MAX, then during a mobile home title transfer service MAX will display an alert indicating there is a lien in accommodative data:

Alerts

Confirmation Warning- Possible lienholder on vehicle. Please check Accommodative Data for this mobile home.

No Yes

Check the accommodative data for the lien information before continuing.

- If the customer does not have a lien release, use the Manage Liens and Brands service to add the lien to the record in MAX. The customer will need to get a lien release before continuing with the service
- If the customer is providing a lien release, the you may continue with the title transfer service without adding the lien to MAX
