90-Day Non-Resident (Drive-Out) Permit

The 90-Day (Drive-Out) Permit allows a non-resident to drive their vehicle back to the state in which they reside and valid for 90 days from the date of issuance or upon foreign state registration, whichever comes first.

The permit may be purchased with the Division or an Arizona licensed motor vehicle dealer for $15.00. When needed, the Division may issue the permit for a dealer sale on behalf of a motor vehicle dealer licensed to sell new or used vehicles.

- Issued to commercial vehicles that do not transport persons or property in Arizona (A semi-trailer that is manufactured in Arizona, and purchased by a non-resident qualifies for the permit to transport goods from Arizona)

If a customer has been unable to leave the state within the 90-day time period, a 30-Day General Use permit may be issued. If the 90-Day and subsequent 30-Day General Use Permit expires and the vehicle remains in Arizona, the owner must register the vehicle.

When 90-Day Non-Resident Permits can be Issued

- A non-resident who purchases a vehicle in Arizona and will be registering the vehicle in their home state regardless if the vehicle is driven or delivered out-of-state
- An enrolled member of an Indian tribe, who resides on a reservation, and who purchases a vehicle in Arizona, but will be using the vehicle exclusively on their reservation and will not register it in Arizona

Required Documentation for a 90-Day Non-Resident

- Vehicle title
- Vehicle registration
- Bill of sale
- Dealer invoice
- Manufacturer's Certificate of Origin (MCO)

Proof of Non-Residency

Yes, proof of non-residency is required. The customer must present one of the following:

- Out-of-state driver license
- Indian reservation physical address for a member of an Indian Reservation and Tribal enrollment, census number, or identification number

Additional Information on a 90-Day Non-Resident Permit

The purchaser of a 90-Day Non-Resident Permit who registers the vehicle in Arizona within 365 days after issuance of the permit will be liable for any Arizona Department of Revenue (ADOR) tax, penalty, and interest due to ADOR. It is the sole responsibility of ADOR to collect monies due.

When the permit is printed, an Affidavit for Arizona 90-Day Nonresident Permit prints at the same time. You will give the permit to the customer and have the customer sign the affidavit. The affidavit will be placed with your data processing paperwork (DPs).
