

Forms Required for T & R

Title and Registration transactions could require different forms based on issues that arise, such as incorrect buyer's name being recorded on the back of the title or the title was never signed by the seller.

When additional documentation (e.g., POA, trust, court document, etc.) is used to give authority to an individual, those documents must be scanned with other supporting documentation.

Verify the signature with the submitted documentation (POA, trust paperwork, court document, etc.).

Documents in MAX are supplemental files used to satisfy business rules, prove eligibility, and meet requirements to complete services. Review all documents to ensure they are properly completed, including all required signatures and dates, as applicable.

Note: A signature is acceptable if it is within the signature block, or if it is adjacent to (above, below, left, right) the signature block if there are no other conflicting signatures which would call into question the validity of that signature.
