Plate Order Search

Plate Order Search is a function within MAX where CSRs in field offices can view the status of plate orders, and where the Special Plates Unit (SPU) can update the status.

If you are helping a customer because they say they haven't received their plate in the mail, ALWAYS check this first to determine the status.

DO NOT reorder any plate that has a status of Pending, Ready to Order, In Production, or Mailed.

If you have questions with the status of a plate order, please contact the Special Plates Unit by email at specialplates2@azdot.gov with the Subject Line: Plate Order Error.

Mailed, Returned, Re-Mailed: Plates are mailed from and returned to the vendor.

The SPU does not handle any physical plates.

Plate Status Definitions

- Pending - The plate order has not yet been reviewed or decided by SPU
- Ready to Order - The plate order has been reviewed and approved by SPU and information has been sent to vendor to make the plate
- Canceled - The plate order was canceled.
 - Note: When a CSR needs to 'burn' a plate to Transfer Plates for a customer, they will need to contact the SPU to cancel the plate order
- Rejected - The requested plate was rejected by the SPU.
 - Example: A Personalized Plate may be rejected for exclusion reason such as profanity or body part
- In Production - The physical plate is currently being produced by the vendor
- Mailed - The plate has been mailed to the customer and address indicated on the order
- Returned - The plate was returned to the MVD by the Post Office
- Re-Mailed - The plate was mailed a second time to the same address on the initial order
 - If address has changed, the customer will need to request a replacement plate

■ Returned Twice - The plate was mailed twice and returned to the MVD by the Post Office both times

■ The plate will be destroyed and the customer will need to request a replacement plate
