Verifying Customer's Identity for T&R Transactions

When a CSR is going to issue a title and/or registration, the customer must show identification matching the documents presented and must be genuine and in proper form. In order for documents to be accepted as a valid form of identification, the document provided by the customer must:

- Contain either the customer's photograph or signature
- Be an acceptable form of identity, view the Acceptable Identity Documents section for more information

▶ Acceptable Identity Documents

▶ Identity Documents

The identification (driver license, identification card, etc.) used by the individual conducting business on behalf of a company, organization, or other entity, regardless of the transaction type, will be uploaded to MAX, and if applicable, the proof authorizing the individual to conduct business on behalf of the company, organization, or other entity will be updated to MAX.
